

48^e CPIC GENERAL ASSEMBLY
26 May 2018 in Brussels

Beneficiaries present	21
Beneficiaries represented	70
Proxies not attributed	0

RECRUITMENT OF NEW BENEFICIARIES

The Foundation Board wishes to encourage beneficiaries to continue distributing the CPIC brochure "Customised retirement provision for a remarkable profession" in order to reinforce the dialogue with the new generation of interpreters and encourage them to join the Fund and participate in the network of interpreters who are beneficiaries. The brochure, which was updated in 2018, can be ordered by e-mail.

PERSONAL PAYMENTS

The Foundation Board reminds beneficiaries that, during years when beneficiaries do not receive any employer contributions, CPIC membership is maintained and the capital continues to grow. Beneficiaries may make personal contributions of up to CHF 40,000 or EUR 40,000 per year at any time in order to increase their retirement savings.

A new page has been included on the website on the subject of what's at stake with regular savings on the basis of both employer contributions and personal payments, invested over the long term in retirement capital.

ELECTIONS

The Assembly re-elected its Chairman, Jacques-André SCHNEIDER, and three members of the Foundation Board, Anne-Marie ARBAJI-SFEIR, Dominique BAZ and Agnès PERROT.
